

OPEN CALL

The Künstlerhaus 188 e. V. invites one artist with a biographical connection to Saxony-Anhalt to take part in a working residency as part of the Printmaking Symposium 2026 in Halle (Saale).

The focus lies on collaborative work with printmaking techniques in an open workshop environment.

The symposium is understood not only as a format, but as a shared attitude: a space for exchange, experimentation, and collective learning.

The working phase is supported by experienced workshop leaders as well as artists invited from across Germany.

The symposium will take place from June 22 to 27, 2026 in the workshops of Künstlerhaus 188 e. V. Applications are open to artists from Saxony-Anhalt.

Experience in printmaking is welcome but not required. The application deadline is May 18, 2026 (inclusive).

Further information and the terms and conditions of participation can be found at: www.kuenstlerhaus188.
